William Martin Lockdown Success Stories

We're missing you all so much during this lockdown, but are amazed at some of the brilliant things you've been doing whilst away from school.

ART COMPETITION: 'COMMUNITY'

Thank you for all the entries to our art competition. Please keep your original pieces of artwork so you can bring them to school when we return. I am pleased to announce the finalists of the competition are...

INFANTS- 3rd place Zenobia Jarkus; 2nd place Jacob Adams

WINNER: Dylan Aley, Year 2

JUNIORS- 3rd place Dawid Wojtczak; 2nd place Austin Dietz

WINNER: Leah Adams, Year 4

Well done! There is a prize for the winners!! All entrants will receive a certificate.

Dylan and Leah can collect their prize from the school office from Thursday 11th June.

Our Core Christian Values: Perseverance, Justice, Respect, Trust, Compassion, Responsibility, Forgiveness, Peace

CHARITY FUNDRAISER

Noah Gunter in year 4 has raised over £150 for the NHS by making and selling loom band bracelets to raise money- well done Noah! We are very proud of you!

SUPPORTING THE CAUSE

This is Maddi with her homemade sign to fight the Coronavirus. Maddi was chosen for a tv advert for Vodafone.

ROALD DAHL CLASS SAYING THANK YOU TO THE NHS

COMPETITION WINNER

Zenobia in year 2 won a drawing competition run by Princess Alexandra Hospital by creating drawings to brighten up the hospital.

BEATRIX POTTER CLASS CELEBRATED VE DAY

MOVIE MAKER

Ronnie in year 3 made it to Your Harlow with his amazing VE Day movie.

'One of the year 3 pupils created a short movie called "Victory 75". He wrote the script; made the props including a paper mache WW11 helmet; directed the cameraman (his Dad) and edited it himself (with a little help from his Dad).'

Click the link to see for yourself. Well done Ronnie!
