

WM Nursery Home Learning – Useful Websites and Activity Ideas

General

Twinkl - Twinkl is a fantastic website which produces a massive range of resources in the form of books, powerpoints, videos and worksheets. This includes all subjects that we cover in school and they always provide excellent quality linked resources. Some resources are free and many more have been made available free to help with home schooling.

CBeebies has lots of games and videos, including alphablocks, numberblocks and the Numtums

Reading

Read a book with your child each day using the Oxford Owl website <https://home.oxfordowl.co.uk/>. If you go to Reading and set to 3-4, there are lots of helpful tips about reading with your child and also a free eBook library.

Phonics

www.phonicsplay.co.uk - This is free during this lockdown with the username jan21 and password home. Go to resources and set to phase 1 and 2 to play the games - Flashcards, Sound Starts, Welcome To The Zoo, Cake Bake, Super Smoothie.

Extra support on phoneme pronunciation can be found at Phonics: How to pronounce pure sounds | Oxford Owl

There is a useful guide to phonics and more games on the CBeebies alphablocks website: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/cbeebies/grownups/the-alphablocks-guide-to-phonics>

Activity Ideas:

- You could do a letter by writing some letters on post-its around the house
- Call out letters for children to write on a piece of paper
- Write letters on post its and stick on the wall, ask children to fly swat or shoot with a nerf gun the correct letter when you say it
- Play teachers using the flashcards, take turns to be the teacher and the pupil with your child

- Use the flashcards to make simple words
- Practice letter formation
