

RE

Our Umbrella Question

How do people make moral decisions?

Our big thinking question for RE this term is: How do people make moral decisions? This means, how do people decide what they think is right or wrong – how do they decide what choices to make.

Task: Think carefully, and write a set of rules that you think would be good to follow in your own life so that you make good choices.

My Rules for Life